Workshop Topics

COMMUNICATING EFFECTIVELY WITH OTHERS IS WORK!

How long have you been communicating with others? A lifetime! How effective are you? Do you know your communication style? Do you adapt your communication style to the individual(s) you are communicating with? In this workshop, you will learn the different communication styles and discover which style(s) is yours. In our rapidly changing world of “social” networking, face-to-face communication skills are declining. This workshop will remind you that no matter how many avenues you have to communicate, interpersonal communication is the most effective!

SOFT SKILLS IN THE WORKPLACE

“Hard Skills” got you your job. They are the skills that met the qualifications of your job description – your daily responsibilities. You get the job done! But what are “Soft Skills”? “Soft Skills” are the special touches that add value to each day, making every day better and brighter for everyone – your employer, your co-workers, AND your customers. In this workshop, you will learn the importance of “Soft Skills” so you can make the greatest impact when communicating with others. This workshop will benefit you and all those you communicate with every day.
